

Summer Workshop Application/Registration

POLICING in the 21ST CENTURY

July 27, 2020 1:00 P.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Have you ever asked: “What kind of person should become a law enforcement officer?”

This exciting ON-LINE workshop will explore the changing world of modern policing. A panel of experts with backgrounds in law enforcement and criminal justice will discuss:

- the types of crimes police deal with (adult & juvenile) and how are they handled
- the type of education and training required to become a law enforcement officer
- resources available to the community (victims advocate, social services, court)
- community policing
- cultural differences in communities and how they affect policing and community relations
- what the courts can do to provide alternatives to probation and confinement
- what needs to change in the criminal justice system to better serve the public.
