IV. Items for Discussion

a. Review of Student Affairs Council Responsibilities
b. Review of each committee assignment (Admission practices for other institutions.)

- Amber/Jipaum looked at admission processes for Chicago schools. They noticed there was a difference in placement scores.
- Dr. Price asked if anyone saw any exemplar admission process? Cara said that Wabash's dual credit was really nice and explanatory.
- Mindy Reach said that Parkland was vague in its admission processes.
- Blake Goforth said that Rend Lake's processes were pretty similar to ours.

- Dr. Capps said that John A. Logan had a dual enrollment and dual guideline sheet for dual credit/dual enrollment.
- Danielle had WKTCC and theirs were similar but they had a section for Veterans admissions. She wasn't sure if they partnered with the military, however, veterans had their own page.
- Dr. Price did Lake Land.
- Teale had SIC, they had a university prep program for juniors and seniors. They take the top 20 applicants. The program is $50 dollars and there is an application process. Dual credit classes are free to students. They also have an early college program and tuition is waived. They have a guideline for credit hours.
- Leslie had Kaskaskia
- Dr. Price said that when we look at policies we should look at Highland CC and Olney Central.
- Dr. Doerr compiled all of the data collected from the meeting. See attachment.
- Teale asked whether anyone else has seen audit policies on dual credit? Dr. Doerr expressed that Wabash aligns with the college's policy.
- Cara spoke about concurrent enrollment/ taking classes at two different institutions at the same time.
- Cara shared the College's policy development and how it correlates with the strategic plan. We are looking at policy (8150), Admissions, Academic Classification, and Course Load.

V. New Business

None
