been assigned to each of the Student Affairs Teams for review. The Executive Council has been working on a policy review tool and process. The council chairs have already been trained and the team chairs will be training in the policy review tool and process soon.

- Dr. Teske explained that the team will be evaluating policy only. Policies must have an importance, need and authority.
- Without this tool and process in place the team cannot begin reviewing policy. However, the team began looking at Financial Aid policies that are not driven by the Department of Education to see where changes may need to be made.
- Dr. Doerr pointed out that some of our policies may be outdated due to the fact that they have not kept up with advances in technology and the current platforms available to us today.
- Mindy Ashby asked if policies should include a statement that they will be reviewed on a regular basis. Dr. Teske suggested that the team create a policy review calendar to track this.
- Dr. Doerr stated that she has been reviewing the financial aid webpages and is in the process of updating them.
