There were no additions to the agenda.

IV. Old Business
   a. NSO updates
      - Mindy Ashby reported that some people have already started working on their sections. She thinks it is going quite well with them meeting weekly to work on it.

V. New Business
   a. Kevin-social media marking ideas?
      - Kevin Hunsperger presented a social media campaign he is currently working on to highlight SCC degree and certificate programs. He plans to run this throughout the summer months as we move towards the fall semester.

- The team agrees that he may mix and match photos of students with faculty in this campaign.
- Kevin also plans to update the CTE program flyers this summer. This information will be the flipside of the flyers he is making for the summer social media campaign.
- Kevin added that Vienna High School and U of I Extension have received a grant to set up a podcast studio that will be at Vienna High School. We will be able to utilize it. He plans to create a SCC podcasting network and have different shows within the network. One of the shows will feature Shawnee success stories.
