The Cultural Awareness Team did not hold a regular meeting. We hosted a Juneteenth luncheon with guest speakers from the community. The speakers educate on the history of the holiday and the importance of remaining consistent in diversity for the equality of all people. The luncheon received recognition from several media outlets and was well attended.

Guest speakers included:
Anna Jackson a retired English lecturer with twenty-four years of service from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale.

Jeff McGoy, Director of Exploratory Student Advisement and Center for Learning Support Services at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale. He has over twenty years of experience in higher education in both academic and student affairs.
